

Course Information on LOCAL ADMINISTRATION FOR AFGHANISTAN

I. Outline

Duration : June 30 ~ July 20, 2013

Objectives

- To provide the vision and strategy for local development of Afghanistan by sharing Korea's local governance and regional development policies
- To assist Afghanistan in the capacity building of government officials
- To promote a better understanding and more friendly relations between Afghanistan and Korea

Venue : Seongnam City & Suwon City, Republic of Korea

Participation : 9 government officials from Afghanistan

Language : Dari language ⇔ English

Organizer and Training Institute : Local Government Officials Development Institute

(www.logodi.go.kr)

Sponsor : Korea International Cooperation Agency (www.koica.go.kr)

Accommodation : KOICA International Cooperation Center - ICC

(<http://training.koica.go.kr>)

II. Major Activities

Lectures

- Korean Agricultural Development Strategy
- Korean Economic Development at a Glance
- Local Self-government in Korea : Institution, Practice, and Issues
- Territorial and Regional Development Strategies in Korea
- Strategies for Transparency Enhancement in the Afghanistan Civil Service
- Rural Development and New Village Movement
(SAE MAUL UNDONG; SMU) in Korea
- Public HR Policy and System of Korean Government
- Strategic Steps for a Good Performance Management
- Local Public Finance in Korea : Structure, Issues, and Implications for Afghanistan
- Sustainable Economic Growth Strategy for Afghanistan

Study Visits

- Global Institute for Transferring Skills
- Gyeonggi Provincial Assembly
- Ministry of Security and Public Administration
- Gangwon Provincial Government
- Pyeongchang Euiyajee Wind Village (Information Network Village)
- Rural Development Administration
- Small & Medium Business Corporation

Site Visits

- POSCO (Pohang Steel Company)
- Hyundai Heavy Industries
- Hyundai Motors
- Samsung Electronics

Cultural Experiences

- Seoul City Tour
- Cultural Experience in Gyeongju City